Jay Cooke & Co.

Ригалевания, July 16.—Before Register Mason to-day an examination of the affairs of Jay Cooke & Co., bankrupts, by counsel for ereditors, was commenced. Jay Cooke was first examined. He referred counsel to the books of the firm for most of the information they

Mr. Fahnstock. senior partner of the firm, resident in New York, said at the time of the suspension of the firm of Jay Cooke & Co. it was indebted to Jay Cooke, McCulloch & Co. The latter firm held no collaterals to secure this indebtedness. Jay Cooke & Co. were solvent on September 17, and were insolvent on September 18, caused by inability to raise funds to meet the demands. The chief cause was the advances made to the Northern Pacific railroad. All these advances were made by the advice of Jay Cooke. Witness frequently objected to this class of investment. No proposition was ever made by the firm to exchange Northern Pacific railroad bonds for real estate. The Philadelphia house was largely indebted to the New York house. Witness also remonstrated against this. All three houses stopped simultaneously. The examination will be resumed

A DESPERADO KILLED -- Last Thursday morning, special constable Nicholas Slaughter with a posse went to the house of Bassel Mans field, a notorious character, who lived about three miles south of Ringgold depot, in this county, for the purpose of arresting him, on a warrant issued at the instance of Mrs. Betsy Davis, who charged that Mansfield had cruelly beaten her and robbed her house. When the force arrived at Mansfield's house, he was sitting out in the yard, eating, with his loaded gun by his side. The constable read to him the warrant, when suddenly Mausfield seized his gun, and in the act of shooting, the constable's par ty, by order, fired upon him, killing him almost instantly. Immediately thereafter Mr. Slaughter surrendered himself to a Justice and demanded an investigation. A jury of inquest was summoned which after a thorough examination of the case reported that the said Mansfield came to his death by a pistol shot-fired by an officer of the law, or his force in the discharge of their duty, and in detence of their Mansfield was, it will be remembered tried in this county last winter for horse stealing, and had subsequently served a short time in the penitentiary for the same offence, and had been pardoned by Gov. Wells.-Chatham Tribune.

MARRIED ON A BORROWED LICENSE.-A letter from Careyville, Campbell county, Tenn., to the Knoxville Chronicle, shows up the ingenious deed of a thrifty but unscrupulous man in the locality. It says: Last Sunday, by Squire Warnack, at this place, where married. William Logston to a Mrs. Davis. Both parties have living undivorced consorts, of whom they had wearied. For some reason, possibly economy Mr. Logston did not apply for and receive a license in the usual way, but instead took one that had been issued to his brother George, in November, 1871. He erased George's and the lady's name, inserted William and the maides name of the woman to be married, and changed the date to June, 1874. After being tied together the couple left for the railroad, before a return was made of the license. George Logston had been married with the same license by an unauthorized person, and no return was made to the elerk which accounts for its convenience for second

PROBABILITIES.-The following beats old Probabilities out of sight:

When you see a man going home at two o'clock in the morning, and know his wife is waiting up for him, it is likely to be stormy. When a man receives a bill for goods his wife bought unknown to him, look out for "thunder and lightning.' When a man goes home and finds no supper ready, the fire gone out and his wife crusading, it is likely to be "cloudy."

When a man promises to take his wife to a party and changes his mind after she is dressed, you may expect a "shower." When a man saves his cigar money to buy his wife a new bonnet and the children new shoes, it indicates a spell of "sunshine." When a man dies and leaves a nice young widow with plenty of money, and you see her walking out with one of the executors on Sunday, a "change is imminent.

S. V. R. R. - Judge Ashby, a Director of the S. V. R. Co., says that arrangements have | Brackets, &c. been made with responsible parties to secure the construction of the S. V. R. R., and that the only obstacle now in the way of a vigorous prosecution of the work is the injunction obtained by Jefferson County, which prevents the Directors of the S. V. R. R. Co., from acting; and that preparations are now being made for a hearing of the case upon a motion to dissolve the injunction during the present mouth. The Central Improvement Company who have heretofore had the contract for the building of the road retires from the work. He further says that in all probability, if the negotiations now under consideration are perfeeted and accepted by the S. V. R R. Co., the work of graduation, &c., will be resumed by the 1st of September: 1874 .-- Page Courier.

A NEW ELDORADO .-- It seems to be the universal opinion of the press of the Northwest that General Custer's expedition to the Black Hills with be the means of opening a new Eldorado. The land in that locality, it is believed, teems with gold and other precious metals, and for this reason the Indians are expected to make a bitter and determined resistence to the march of our soldiers. Custer is too good an Indian fighter to be balked in the enterprise, and with his well known determination and fighting qualities will succeed in having a survey of the country made. It will be unfortubate for the Indians, no doubt, if extensive deposits of gold and silver are found in their country, for not all the eight thousand rifl's of the Sloux warriors will suffice to keep the miners out of the land .- Wash Chron.
